GARRARD YOUNG MAN FACES SERIOUS CHARGES

Suit For $35,000 For Breach of Promise and Betrayal Charge Against Embry McWhorter

Embry McWhorter, member of a prominent Garrard county family of the Paint Lick section, was taken through here late last week, by officers who arrested him in Oklahoma to face a damage suit for $35,000 for breach of promise brought against him in the Garrard circuit court at Lancaster against him by Miss Madell King, also a member of a prominent Garrard family. At the same time, he must face an indictment charging betrayal brought against him, by the present session of the grand jury, so Acting Commonwealth's Attorney J. S. Owsley reported here Sunday.

The affair has created quite a sensation in Garrard county, where both of the parties are so well known and prominent, and a very hard-fought legal battle is expected in both cases. McWhorter has been away from Garrard for some weeks, and it is said that the officers had difficulty in locating him, but a detective from Richmond finally found him in Oklahoma.

MASS MEETING

Called By Preachers of City To Discuss Soft Drink Licenses.

The pastor of the different churches of the city have called a mass meeting to be held at the court house on Wednesday evening, March 20th, to furnish an opportunity for the people to express themselves on the effort which is being made to extend the licenses for the soft drink stands in Stanford, after the new law goes in effect. This was decided upon at the regular Monday meeting of the ministers of the city. They say that all parties, races, sexes and creeds are invited to be present and participate in the discussion.

Regarding the discussion of the city licenses for the soft drink stands, County Attorney W. S. Bush has given the opinion that a city license to sell alcoholic drinks after the new state goes into effect, will be invalid, and he says that if there is any effort to sell after the state law becomes effective, he will prosecute under the state law.

DUDDEAR'S MILL

And Farm Sold By U. S. Taylor to George B. Boone.

U. S. Taylor last week sold the Duddear's Mill property and farm of 160 acres which goes with it to George B. Boone, who will operate the mill this season. Mr. Taylor bought this nice property from the estate of the late W. H. Taylor, and had intended operating the mill and farm himself as he is a practical man at both ends of the game. He saw a chance to make a nice little profit on the deal, and sold to Mr. Boone, who has been on the lookout for a nice little place like this for the past few weeks. The price was not made public but it is understood that Mr. Taylor cleaned up $500 profit on the transaction.

DANVILLE INDICTED

For Restricting Playground of Little Fish of Garrard County.

The little fishes of Garrard county must have an unrestricted playground, whether the good people of Danville get any water to drink or not. At least this is the construction many are putting upon an indictment brought in by the present session of the Garrard grand jury, which returned a true bill against the city of Danville, for unreasonably and unduly obstructing Dix River, without making proper provision for the passage up and down the stream of the fish, for which this river is so justly famous. The dam, which the city of Danville built is for the purpose of supplying the city with water, and the trial of the case in the Garrard court at the next term of court in Lancaster will undoubtedly create considerable interest.

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT

Culminates in Wedding of Miss Nannie Smith and Arthur Webber

An old-fashioned case of love at first sight, was happily culminated here last Friday when Miss Nannie Smith, of this county and Arthur Webber, of Clark County, Indiana were married by Rev. J. H. Jones, pastor of the Baptist church. The young people had never seen each other before last Sunday week, just five days before their marriage. They met in Louisville, where the bride was on a visit to friends. Their courtship was a quick one, and they came back here Friday and were made one. The bride is the attractive daughter of Hiram Smith, of Hoxhoid section, while the groom is a popular young Hoosier farmer. Both have good wishes for happiness. After a short visit here, they will probably go to Indiana to make their home.

COLORED JURY

Holds Inquest Over Young Colored Girl Drowned in Spring.

Probably the first time a colored jury has been empaneled in Lincoln at least in many, many years, happened Sunday afternoon, when former George P. Bright had a jury summoned to inquire over the body of Hossie Tharmond, a young colored woman, who is believed to have fallen in a spring on the old Peak farm in the West End and drowned Saturday. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts brought out. Coroner Bright summoned the jury because there were no white men living in the immediate vicinity and he found a number of colored householders who were well qualified to act in the case. The Tharmond woman is said to have been suffered from fits and fell in the spring while having a fit.

MRS. LILLARD DEAD.

Wife of Boyle County Stockman Succumbs to Pneumonia

Many local friends were grieved last week to learn of the death Friday at Danville of Mrs. Mary Burke Lillard, wife of W. H. Lillard, the well known cattle man. She had been ill of pneumonia only a short time. She was 40 years of age and was born in Boyle county. She is survived by a husband, two sons, Allen aged 12 and William aged 5, her father, Dr. W. B. Burke, five brothers, W. B. Burke, Jr., of Prestonsburg, Ky., T. B. Burke, of Lexington, Robert and Collins of Boyle, Hardin of Birmingham, Ala., four sisters, Mrs. F. W. Millsbaugh, Birmingham, Ala., Mrs. Robert Harris, Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. A. G. Milligan, and Miss Nellie Burke, of Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. Lillard was a consistent member of the Christian church, an enthusiastic member of the Womans Christian Temperance Union, and taught a large class in the Sunday school.

CAN YOU ASK MORE?

Your Money Back for the Asking You Promise Nothing

We are so confident that we can furnish relief for indigestion and dyspepsia that we promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who uses it according to directions who is not perfectly satisfied with the results. We exact no promises and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely nothing could be fairer. We are located right here where you live, and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want everyone who is troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and buy a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home, and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. If they don't please you, tell us and we will quickly return your money. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regitative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at our store—the Rexall Store, Penny's Drug Store.

TO OPEN UP A NEW CLOTHING ESTABLISHMENT

United Clothing Stores To Open Up In Stanford at Popular Corner Within Few Days.

Messrs. E. H. Norman, of St. Louis, and Luther Vivion, of Harrodsburg, were in Stanford last Friday making preparations for the opening of the new clothing and gent's furnishing goods store which will be established in Stanford in the Hoek's store room at the corner of Main and Lancaster streets. Shipping in a large stock of goods will begin this week, and formal announcement of the opening of the big store will be made in Friday's issue of the L. J.

Mr. T. D. Rainey, one of the best known salesmen in this section of the state, has been appointed local manager of the big store, which will be one among a chain of stores operated by the United Clothing Stores Company, with headquarters in St. Louis. By their method of operation and management, the system of stores is enabled to buy goods in great volume, it is stated, and is thus enabled to sell to the customer at a figure not ordinarily found in most stores.

CRAB ORCHARD.

The officials of the L. & N. Railroad company came through our thriving little city Thursday and they all seemed well pleased in the way the company's business was carried on by our popular agent Mr. J. W. Fish.

Mr. Matthew Fenzel, formerly of Stanford, but now operator of this place, is getting very popular with the fair sex of this city. Going to parties is his hobby.

Mr. Thomas Hatt will move into his handsome dwelling just completed on Birch street the first of next week.

Mr. Clyde Morgan is learning telegraphy at the depot and we predict a bright future for this young man.

Mr. Mack Parker, of Stanford, still hangs around our little city on Sundays. Perhaps one of the young ladies is driving him to this. No name mentioned.

Miss Pearl Collier went to Louisville Thursday to visit her brother of that city.

Prof. G. E. Everett, was in Louisville the latter part of the week on a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Sanders and Miss Kate Melvin anted to Hustonville Sunday.

Mr. Hubert Collier and Mr. Isaac W. Catlin drove to Pendergrassville Sunday to attend Sunday school.

Mrs. J. H. Collier who has been visiting her son in Louisville, returned Wednesday.

Mr. J. J. Tatum is in Louisville on business.

J. S. Harris and family, Houston Wilson and family and R. M. Grayson left Wednesday for Oakdale, Washington. We regret very much to give these people up, but wish them every success in their new home.

Miss Anna Warren, of Stanford, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. E. Garnett, returned home Sunday unaccompanied by her father.

Mrs. J. D. Catlin, who has been visiting her parents at Brumfield returned home Sunday.

Noah Vanhook and Rosco Rogers the latter better known as "Bee Lick," made a flying trip to Brodhead and Stanford last week. During their journey "Bee Lick" lost his father's best hat.

MORGAN BUYS OUT DUNCAN

Lafe Morgan, the popular Milledgeville merchant and miller, who recently sold out his place there to Mr. Moser, is coming closer to Stanford to live. Last week he bought the farm and store of W. M. Duncan, on the Somerset pike, about four miles from Stanford and will take possession at once. Mr. Morgan paid $3,000 for the outfit it is understood. This is one of the best known little stores in the county, and Mr. Morgan will push the business for all it is worth. He and his popular family will be heartily welcomed to this end of the county.

Three convicts murdered the warden and two assistants at the Nebraska State prison and are still at large.

PRISON COMMISSIONERS

"FIRE" CAPT. GENTRY

Because Senator Hubble Would Not Vote to Keep Them in Office It is Charged.

News was received here this week from Frankfort that Capt. Robert R. Gentry, of Lincoln county, has been discharged as a guard at the Frankfort penitentiary, where he has been on the warden's staff for many years. Capt. Gentry's head "came off" it is said, because Senator R. L. Hubble, of this county, refused to vote to retain Eli H. Brown and Harvey McTeehan on the Board of Prison Commissioners, when the new prison board bill recently came up in the senate.

Senator Hubble was a strong administration man, and would not allow the present prison commissioners to control him, so that they get their revenge by dismissing Capt. Gentry, who had originally been appointed to his place by Senator Hubble's influence.

Capt. Gentry has made a splendid record as guard, at Frankfort, it is said, and his friends will make a strong effort to have him reappointed when Gov. McCreary names the new Prison Board in June, when the new law goes into effect. Under the new law, the guards can only be removed for cause, and are not subject to the whim of some politician. Six other guards at the penitentiary were discharged at the same time as Capt. Gentry.

WHO'S HE TALKING ABOUT?

Mt. Vernon Editor Doesn't Like Being Put in Eleventh

Editor Albright of the Mt. Vernon Signal, has this hot shot upon Rockcastle county, being put into the Eleventh Congressional district.

"It came at last, Rockcastle was kicked into the Eleventh and that is all there is to it. We are there and there is no use to cry over 'spilt milk'." We did not want to go and it is very doubtful whether we will ever become very well satisfied in our new location, but we shall try to make the best of it. We have one consolation and that is whenever we meet an Eleventh district democrat, we know he is true blue, a democrat from principle and that his vote is not for sale. That is more than can be said of some scoundrels who call themselves how makers and took an active part in having Rockcastle put out."

PAINT LICK

The marriage of Laban Kirk and Miss Mollie McWhorter was a surprise to their many friends.

M. K. Ross and Luther Fish have gone to Hot Springs, Arkansas, for a much needed rest.

Joe McCormack had a valuable mink coat to get buried by an L. & N. passenger train.

The Allens, including the prisoner and their friends, after the killing of the sheriff, backed slowly out of the courthouse, holding all would-be pursuers in check at the point of revolvers. Once outside, they made a dash for the mountains on horseback. A posse of citizens soon was in pursuit, and reports soon reached here that Floyd Allen had been seriously wounded in a sort of pitched battle which was fought with the posse.

The village was thrown into a ferment. The wiping out of the law officers left affairs in the hands of untrained citizens, but nearly every man in this section of the country joined in the hunt.

The brothers and their friends must have been well armed, for it seemed to spectators who escaped from the bloody court room that fully one hundred shots were fired.

In the first fusillade several jurors had been wounded. Blankenship, Sheriff Webb, whipping out his own weapon, made for the prisoner, who had joined in the shooting, with an oath and declaration that he would never go to jail, but the officer was stopped by a perfect hail of lead and crumpled into a life less heap on the floor.

As soon as Governor Mann was notified this morning of the outbreak at Hillsboro he ordered companies of State troops from Roanoke and Lynchburg to the scene and offered $1,000 reward for the capture of the outlaws.

Floyd Allen, the man on trial, has defied the Carroll county authorities for years. He was known as a "bad man" and commanded a lawless element of gun fighters, who at times held the community in a reign of terror.

Don't be surprised if you hear of the wedding bells ringing at this little village soon.

Miss Daisy Sims is keeping house for her father while her sister, Dolie, is in the city of Waynesburg.

Mrs. Dave Hicks will move back to this place the last of this month.

Correspondent at Mt. Moriah, we ask you to guess who the wedding bells will ring for.

MCCARTY'S SOFT DRINK

STAND GUTTED BY FIRE

Prompt Work of Fire Laddies All That Saved Two Adjoining Houses—A Heavy Blow

The explosion of the gas generator in the gasoline lighting system in the soft drink stand of J. M. McCarty's on Depot street, set fire to the building about 9 o'clock Saturday night, and before the flames could be extinguished, the entire building had been gutted and the entire stock of goods destroyed. But for the hard work of the volunteer firemen the Gentry millinery store next door, owned by the wife of George W. Gentry, the colored revenue man, and the soft drink stand of J. W. Acey, just above it, would have been destroyed. As it was the millinery store was slightly damaged, but it was amply protected in the Henry Clay Fire Insurance Company, represented by R. M. Newland here.

Mr. McCarty made heroic efforts to stop the blaze when the generator first exploded and burned up several overcoats in fighting the fire. All who were in the place at the time, sought safety in flight when they saw the size of the blaze except Mr. McCarty, and Jailer Dink Farmer, who happened to be there at the time and did what he could to keep the flames from spreading, but without avail.

It took some little time to get the hose playing on the flame, but a powerful pressure was given once it was put to working and the blaze was held to the one building.

Mr. McCarty's loss is almost complete. He carried $750 insurance with companies represented by J. D. Weare, which he says will not nearly cover his losses, so that the blow is a particularly heavy one to him.

The building he occupied is owned by the estate of the late R. G. Jones and about $300 insurance was carried on it. It is not a total loss, however.

CHEST CRUSHED IN

Lincoln County Young Man Sustains Injury on Railway.

E. O. Gooch, of the East End, returned home last week, from a hospital in Lexington, where he had been under treatment for several weeks as a result of a rather serious accident he sustained while working on an L. & N. crew above Jackson, Mr. Gooch was coupling a crane to a car of coal, when in some manner, the coupling slipped, and he was pinned in between them. His chest was severely mashed in, and it seems a miracle that the life was not crushed out of him. He was released in an unconscious condition and taken immediately to the hospital at Lexington for medical attention.

Although sufficiently recovered to leave the hospital, he is still very sore about the chest, and will be unable to return to work for some time. He is visiting relatives around Crab Orchard until he makes a complete recovery.

PAY HIGH TRIBUTE TO THEIR DEPARTING CHIEF

Employees of Local Telephone Office Tell of Splendid Work Done Here By H. C. Wray.

So true is that old saying you never miss the winter 'till the well runs dry. Writing in a general way to cover as much of the subject as possible, with a small amount of space at our disposal, we the employees of the East Tennessee Telephone Company take this method in expressing to the public our sentiments in regards to our ever faithful manager, H. C. Wray. No man in the state of Kentucky has built a greater reputation nor one based upon a more solid foundation than has our manager, Mr. Wray.

Mr. Wray was born in Lincoln county this state, and became interested in the telephone business at an early age. He took the management of the first exchange in Stanford some 14 years ago, which was then an infant business, and in a short space of time so thoroughly grasped the merits of the proposition and so well handled his little district that now receives in return for his earnest and faithful service quite a promotion. Mr. Wray possesses the ability to make friends, both for himself and his company, and has popularized the service in his exchange. He has literally worked up from the ranks and owes nothing to favoritism or influence. He is a believer in the widest publicity and the ideal to which he has always worked, is perfect service.

Appointed a Member of New State Board of Examiners.

(Frankfort Journal.)

The papers say that Governor McCreary will probably appoint Mayor J. H. Polsgrove, of Frankfort, as Judge of the new circuit court district of Franklin county. There are a number of good lawyers in the new district who are excellent judicial timber, but the Governor could not do better than to name the popular Mayor. We had the pleasure of serving in the Frankfort City Council under him for a couple of years, and a fairer, squarer official could not be found in the state. As County Judge of Franklin for many years, he made a splendid record, and we predict for him in the higher role, still more brilliant achievements. He will prove an honor to the emine, we are confident, and even and exact justice to all may be expected at his hands.

"Don't Wear Stockings too Tight" says an expert to the ladies. How in the thunder are some going to keep from it unless they have them made to order? The above is written by Editor Henry R. Lawrence, and he had the nerve to print it in his Cadiz Record last week. On behalf of the respectable married editors of the Kentucky Press Association, we demand to know by right does a confirmed bachelor like him assume to possess such technical knowledge of feminine hosiery.

Editor Orr, of the Harrodsburg Leader, answers that he has a choice for president and is not ashamed to tell his name, but we notice he does not do so. Let's have it, Brother Orr. Don't wait until the cat has jumped. Out with it. Is he the terrible one or nice old Grandmother Bill?

Several papers are saying that Col. Jack Cunn, of Harrodsburg, is a candidate for Congress against Harvey H. Helm. We'll not believe it until we see a check for his announcement in the Interior Journal.

FUNERAL OF DR. FOWLER

The funeral of Dr. Clifton Fowler was conducted last Friday afternoon from his late residence on Main street, and was attended by a large number of friends and loved ones. Beautiful and impressive services were conducted at the home by Rev. J. B. Jones, of the Baptist church, at which the man of God paid a high tribute to the life and good works of the deceased. After songs and prayer, the remains were taken to Buffalo Springs Cemetery and laid to rest in await the resurrection morn. The pallbearers were life-long friends and neighbors of Dr. Fowler: Messrs. J. N. Menefee, S. T. Harris, E. P. Woods, T. D. Newland, J. B. Foster and Eb Kennedy.

GARRARD COURT

In the Garrard Circuit Court last week, Allen Jones, a negro was given from two to twenty-one years for the killing of Harrison Preston, another negro.

Lee Burton's trial for the killing of a negro named Hudson resulted in a hung jury. Burton was admitted to bond in the sum of $500, which he gave.

The grand jury failed to return an indictment against Moses Cottrell who has been confined in jail charged with cutting W. H. Ward in such a manner that he died.

A GOOD MAN GONE

George W. Cummings, aged 71

years, died at his home in the Pleasant Point neighborhood on last Thursday and was buried, after services at the church there on Saturday, conducted by the pastor Rev. A. S. Jeffries. Mr. Cummings was a splendid citizen and one of the deacons and pillars of the Baptist congregation there. He is survived by his wife and seven grown children. Mr. Cummings was a victim of paralysis which came upon him as he worked upon his farm, and ensued his death after a few hours' illness. A wide circle of friends and loved ones mourn that he is no more.

Baughman will stand the great harness stallion Beau Naboth, of the farm of the former, on the Somerset pike for the season of 1912, and will soon announce his pedigree and particulars. This sire is a producer of some of the finest harness and road horses seen in the part of the state, and has made a fine record in the stud.

A prominent farming authority is warning farmers against the use of clipped oats as seed oats. An oat clipper looks about like a wheat fan. Two perforated plates are placed, one immediately under the other, and put in motion with about the same motion as a fan. The ends of the oat grinds are clipped off and the outer husk or jacket of the grain then comes off. As the grains of oats are not all the same size, a great many are cut half in two. As a rule, oats that have been discolored by wet weather harvesting are clipped, as with the outer coat taken, the oats are the brighter color and do not show that they have been damaged. Clipped oats should not be used for seed as the clipping takes the outer husk off and leaves the grain unprotected, but the principal reason is that the grain being cut, destroys the germ, and in a big majority of cases, will prevent sprouting.

Quite a number of farmers have been complaining of corn stalk poison among their cattle. Jim McCormick of the West End is reported to have lost a couple of mighty fine steers last week, which were worth about $70 apiece, while W. T. Garner, of the Crab Orchard pike, lost several to die on his hands. The poison is said to come from rotting or half decayed fodder.

Mrs. Lowndes, of Danville, renewed the memory of her great saddle mare Princess Sonin, in the little 1912 foal. The Princess Sonin 9796, almost the same in blood. The little one is by Kentucky Choice and out of O'Minnow. Son 5693—and she is spirited and trots off like she would prove a great prize winner in the best company.

J. S. Taylor has a sow with nine male-footed shotes for sale. The sow has ordinary split hoofs but the youngsters have the solid feet and are quite a curiosity in this section.
